

The Doctoral School in the Social Sciences

offers 11 doctoral programmes in 9 disciplines :

- Economics and Finance
- Socio-Economic Geography and Spatial Planning
- Social Communication and Media
- Political and Public Administration Sciences
- Management and Quality Sciences
- Legal Sciences
- Sociology
- Pedagogy
- Psychology
- Interdisciplinary program “Sociate of the Future”
- International PhD programme in Cognitive Neuroscience “CogNes”

Education at the Doctoral School in the Social Sciences lasts between 3 to 4 years. All PhD candidates are offered courses in four modules: Academic Education, Methodology Education, Academic Skills, and Professional and Soft Skills. The languages of instruction are Polish and English. Courses are run by specialists both from Poland and abroad.

The School is attended by PhD students from Brazil, the Czech Republic, France, India, Ukraine, and other countries.